A GREEN LANDSCAPE FOR CALM AND FLOW

HERE, LIFE
COMES TOGETHER

AT ONE WITH THE LAND

Composed of three low-rise buildings, Arancia Yards rises lightly from the ground, creating shaded valleys and open spaces below.

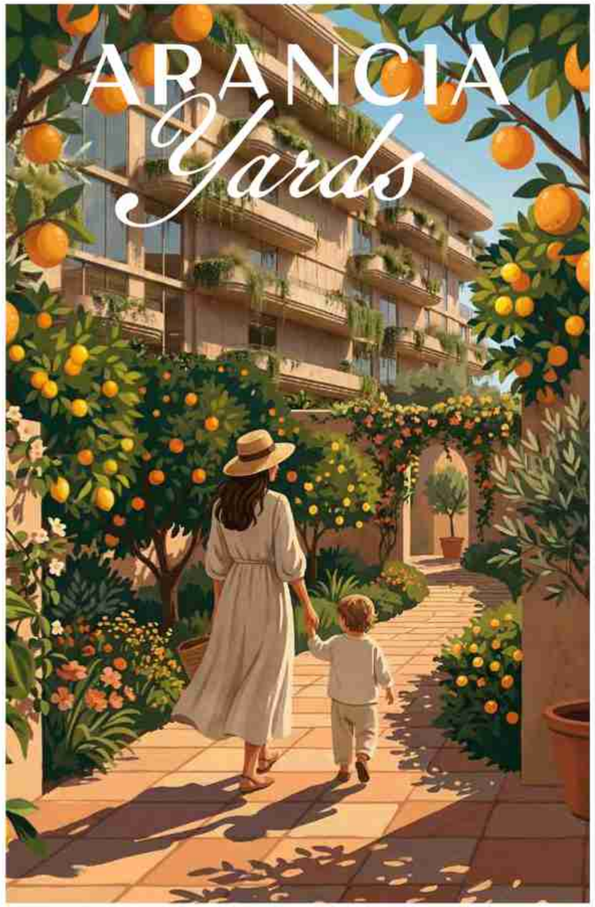

DESIGNED FOR A LIFE WELL LIVED

Residences are thoughtfully planned, with 1, 2 and 3-bedroom layouts that prioritise space, light and comfort. 3.1-metre ceiling heights, private terraces and views across the central landscape create a sense of openness throughout.

Corner homes offer expanded outlooks, while ground-floor residences extend into shaded outdoor spaces, bringing the garden closer to everyday life.

FEEL THE BEAUTY OF A LIFE WELL LIVED

Arancia Yards is shaped around a central green valley, with residences arranged to gently enclose and protect. This formation creates a calm, sheltered landscape where light and air flow freely and open.

ORGANIC BEAUTY, SHAPED BY ABUNDANCE

Nature is expressed through every surface.

Offset terraces create a façade that shifts and softens with the light. Clean architectural lines echo the building's defined form, with planted terraces introduce greenery at every level, shaping a building that feels both architectural and alive.
